

Six-Day, Non-Residential Dzogchen Retreat with Lama Khemsar Rinpoche

The Coronation Hall, Alton Barnes, Wiltshire SN8 4LB
Friday 3rd February - Wednesday 8th February 2017

The retreat is open to the general public

Dzogchen is taught within Tibet's Yungdrung Bon and Nyingmapa traditions. It's view completely differs from that of Tantra and Sutra. It is in this that IF, Dzogchen-pa could discover his/her Rigpa, then one is, from that moment, ascended to the abode of Kun-tu Szang-po the ultimate Buddha or Dharma Kaya!

There are two principal teachings in Dzogchen which are called Treg-Chod & Thod-Ghel. The teachings concerning these are systematically arranged beginning with Dzogchen Ngondro (Dzogchen Foundation) to ripe the unripened mind and Dzogchen Ngo-Zhi (Dzogchen principal) to Free the ripened mind beginning with Zhiney etc.

Cost for the full five-day retreat is £300 per person.
For those only able to attend specific days the cost will be £50 each day.

Lama Khemsar Rinpoche is the founder and spiritual director of TYBSC - The Tibetan Yungdrung Bön Study Centre. He is an eminent teacher of the Yungdrung Bön spiritual tradition and is renowned for his lively teaching style and sparkling wit. He is a non-sectarian liberal teacher who teaches spiritual knowledge rather than dogma.

Yungdrung Bön - meaning Eternal Light or Enlightened Teaching is the original and authentic spiritual tradition of Tibet. It is based on the principle of practising unconditional love and compassion towards all.

All the fees are payable to TYBSC Charitable Organisation via local organisers.
